

The Aurora Award is to honour dynamic women in mining who inspire others through thoughtful leadership and creating connections. The aurora is a dynamic and inspiring natural phenomenon, as are the award winners. Award winners need to work or live in British Columbia.

Criteria of the Aurora Award is to be an inspirational woman or group of women who provide:

- Thoughtful leadership and
- Create connections.

Provide two reference forms per nominee. You may provide up to one additional page if more space is required.

Submit the reference forms to WIMBC Signature Awards Sub-Committee Adjudication Team at WIMBCsignatureawards@gmail.com by 4:00pm PST on April 12, 2019.

Nominee Contact Information (individual/organization):

Name	Company
Phone	E-mail

Nominator Contact Information (your info):

Name	Company
Phone	E-mail

I agree that all information in this form is an accurate representation of the individual or organization.

Nominator Signature:

How do you know the individual/organization?

What personality aspects of the individual/organization makes them worthy of the award? Provide examples.

What tasks or actions have been completed that align with the criteria of the award? Provide examples.